Located on the second line of El Carvajal beach, this one bedroom apartment has a privileged location for many reasons:

- Bus stop at the door.
- Beach 1 minute walk.
- Commuter train stop 10 minutes walking.
- Trail of Las Presas 15 minutes walk.
- Chiringuitos, food stores and anything you might need one step from home.

The green area located in front of it gives a lot of privacy and in its exterior there is a communal parking in which to leave the car.

It belongs to a building with few neighbors and its costs of community plus taxes do not add 500 euros per year.
