You approach the villa from a quiet residential street and enter the property through an electric vehicle gate or through a pedestrian gate with intercom. There is a large parking area, space for a boat, which includes a double car port and from the parking area you can go directly to the entrances to either of the two floors. From the path you go up six steps to the entrance door of the first floor, you enter into a small hallway and then into the living room which has a beamed ceiling and a feature fireplace with integrated woodburner, through glass doors you enter the open naya which has lovely views, the owners use this as a dining room at all times of year as it has pull down awnings on all sides. At the back of the living room there is a superb new open kitchen including cream coloured units, Silestone worktops with breakfast bar, integrated appliances, a stainless steel oven and a glass gas hob. Down a hallway to the right of the entrance hall you will find the house shower room, a double bedroom, a bedroom with bunk beds and a lovely master bedroom with glazed doors leading to the open terrace and an en-suite bathroom. Down the internal staircase and through the door you will find a large under-stairs cupboard and a utility area, through another door you enter the ground floor. You enter into a large living/dining room with glazed doors leading out into the spacious open naya overlooking the pool with ample space for relaxing and alfresco dining. To the left is a large separate kitchen fully fitted with white units, green granite worktops and all appliances. Next to the kitchen there are two spacious double bedrooms with a "Jack and Jill" bathroom in the middle.
